

I am a home-based worker without caller ID. Prior to signing up for no solicitation calls, I was receiving between 5-10 per day. I don't want to go back to picking up the phone only to be greeted by the all too familiar pause before I hang up. The State of Indiana has done a great service to all who added their names to the no-solicitation list.